SURPRISED BY FRIENDS.

About twenty-five of their Mathodist friends, including Rev. Luther and wife, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Devail on Kalamazoo street recently and took this worthy couple unawares-they being entirely unsuspicious of the actions of the people who were the instigators of the attack. After having collected themselves enough to be able to extend a welcome to the guests, hand shaking and greetings were in order. Stories, jokes and s eeches were called for and upon request the host was obliged to deliver an inpromptu speech which caused much pleasure.

Ice cream and wafers were served and the guests departed. The evening is indeed a pleasant memory.

A FRIEND.
